EDITOR OREGONIAN:

According to Army Regulations winter closes the last of March and summer begins the first of April, therefore the Winter Campaign is now at its close.

The Silvie's River expedition arrived at this place October 3d, 1865, with only 15 pack animals for transportation and those nearly unserviceable. Our instructions were to scout over and clear the entire country of all Indians from the Canyon City road on the north to Stein's Mountain on the south (100 miles) and from Snake River on the east to the crooked river of Des Chutes on the west, (about 150 miles.) This region of country of rough mountains, deep canyons, gorges and ravines, has been from time immemorial the direct centre of the hostile Snake Indian country. In addition to clearing this 15,000 square miles of rugged country from hostile Indians we were also ordered to construct winter quarters, and cut or contract for a sufficient amount of hay for our animals during the winter.

It appeared, that to perform all this labor would require more transportation, and better animals than those we possessed, yet if all could not be performed with our limited means of transportation, a part at least could be. The severity of the winters in this country has ever been the great argument against the practicability of a winter campaign. But from the experience of the past, it is found to be far greater in imagination than in reality.

In the months of October and November, winter quarters were built, fifty tons of hay put in the stack by the soldiers, and a vast amount of Indian scouting done. The greater part of the month of December was consumed in scouting the Malheur River country. December was the coldest month of the season, and December 18th the coldest day. During the severest weather forty of the men of the Silvie's River Expedition were on an extensive scout over the vast tract of country lying east of Harney Lake, and along the middle and south forks of the Malheur, passing over snowy mountains, exposed to the severest storms and the most inclement weather, without tents, sleeping in frozen and snowy blankets, with a spare growth of willows along the streams for fuel and frequently not enough to "cook and warm by." Still all these difficulties were overcome. The month of January the pack animals were constantly on the road packing supplies from Camp Curry, (45 miles distant,) to this place.

The month of February was very pleasant. Scouted for Indians some little and the remainder of the time the train was employed on the road.

On the night of February 4th, 1866, while encamped on the south side of Harney Lake, private John J. Mackey, Tenth Ogn. Cavalry, was killed while on post. He was shot with an arrow at ten o'clock at night and died in five hours. He was a good soldier and his life was of far more value than all the Indians from the Pacific Ocean to the Rocky Mountains. Late in the month of February, it was ascertained that no more subsistence stores could be furnished us from Camp Curry, and as our train had been in a poor condition for packing, of course we had not much on hand at that time, it consequently became necessary to do something at once, therefore on the 1st day of March, the pack train and about one half of the men were sent to Camp Watson, 140 miles distant, where they arrived on the 17th, having passed over the roughest part of this country.

We have flour, beans, and sugar, but no meat of any kind. We have been without that luxury for two weeks, and are likely to be without it for some time to come. The men kill ducks, kayotes, muskrats and crows, all of which are served up and readily eaten, yet we seldom hear any complaining. The men who are here at present are brave and energetic fellows, and the most of them hale, hearty and robust. But a few of them have symptoms of scurvy.

The writer of this has always been an advocate of a vigorous winter campaign against the Snake Indians of this country, and since the experience of the winter just past, I am far more fully confirmed in the belief that the winter season is the time when the greatest damage can be inflicted upon the hostile Indians of Southeastern Oregon. Col. Curry is certainly entitled to great credit for his sagacity and foresight in originating and organizing the winter campaign. The only great disadvantage under which the troops have labored, during the past winter, was that the season was too far advanced for all the military camps to be furnished the necessary transportation to prosecute the campaign with that energy and vigor which the service demanded. Had the Quartermaster's Department had sufficient transportation at the time the campaign was organized, all the camps would have been furnished, and in all human probability, the Snake Indians, the terror of this entire frontier country would by this time have been swept out of existence. If the Summer of 1866 should be entirely consumed in making extensive preparations for a vigorous campaign during the winter of 1866-67 so much the better, for the troops would then be well prepared, and unless the Indians are "rushed around furiously" during the summer they will become far more bold and locate their winter quarters much nearer to the military camps. During the cold weather and deep snows, if Indians are found at all, they never can escape the military without losing their scalps, their supplies and their stock, and at such time a blow can be struck that will put a quietus to Indian depredations in the future.

The argument against a winter campaign is that the weather is too cold, and in fact it is quite severe. Yet equally as cold weather is quite often experienced in the Willamette, Umpqua and Rogue River valleys! Pack animals require grain during the winter season! Soldiers require attention during the cold days while marching and if left by themselves might become frozen and perish in the snow, therefore accidents of that kind must be guarded against by orders requiring officers to pay strict attention to the men under them. The practicability of a winter campaign and of moving supplies and men from one portion of the country to the other may be determined to a fair extent by the following. Commencing Dec. 1st, 1865, and ending March 13th, 1866, our fifteen poor miserable pack mules that were unfit for service when delivered to us, and for over one-half of the time without grain, have packed supplies for the expedition to scout over 450 miles of Indian country, and have made 540 miles on the road in packing supplies from Camp Curry to this place, making a total of 990 miles, or an average of 11 miles per day all winter, and at a time when, perhaps the majority of men think it "impracticable" and "nonsense" to talk about a winter campaign in south eastern Oregon.

Other military camps have also undoubtedly demonstrated the same fact, and the general policy of a winter campaign will unquestionably be adopted for the winter of 1866-7 and if prosecuted with that rigor, energy and activity of action that the country demands, it will be productive of more results than all the military campaigning that has been done for the last four years. * * *

THE DEMOCRATIC STYLE.—The pert little fellow who answers to the name O. Fay Jones, candidate for Congress, charged in his Dalles speech, all the Indian troubles on the Canyon City road upon the present Union State officers. He said Gov. Gibbs had, with no regard whatever to the cost, called out a regiment of Infantry ostensibly to put down the Indians in this very country where they are now running riot, and now that these troops are needed the Governor refuses to send one of them to relieve the whites, and even refuses to furnish transportation. O. Fay, with the ignorance of an ass and the assurance the devil thought to manufacture by this means a little prejudice against the Union State ticket now before the people. If he did not know all his hearers did, that every soldier enlisted in this State was mustered into the service of the United States and none of them were ever under the command of Governor Gibbs a moment after the company organization was completed. When O'Fay made that charge, he set himself down in the estimation of every man who heard him as either a fool knowing no better or as a demagogue who supposed his audience all fools.

THEIR DEFENDER.—The Herald of Monday has the following:

> The great reckless blind stride has been taken which makes American citizens of all the inferior races; and but a line now exists between citizenship and universal suffrage. The President is manfully defending that line for the benefit of the native and adopted white citizens of the Union.

To show the Democracy what sort of a defender he is upon whom they rely to protect them against negro suffrage, we republish the following letter from the President to the Provisional Governor of Mississippi:

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 15, 1865.

GOV. WM. M. SHARKEY, Jackson, Miss.:

I am gratified to see that you have organized your Convention without difficulty. I hope that without delay your Convention will amend your State Constitution abolishing slavery, and denying to all future Legislatures the power to legislate that there is property in man; also that they will adopt the Amendment to the Constitution of the United States abolishing slavery. If you could extend the elective franchise to all persons of color who can read the Constitution of the United States in English and write their names, and to all persons of color who own real estate valued at not less than $250 and pay taxes thereon, you would completely disarm the adversary and set an example the other States will follow. This you can do with perfect safety, and you thus place the Southern States, in reference to free persons of color, upon the same basis with the free States. I hope and trust your Convention will do this; and, as a consequence, the radicals, who are wild upon negro franchise, will be completely foiled in their attempts to keep the Southern States from renewing their relations to the Union by not accepting their Senators and Representatives.

ANDREW JOHNSON, President United States.

From the above, the Herald will see that he is "defending the line between citizenship and universal suffrage" with just about the same energy he has shown in his great endeavor "to bring principal, guilty traitors to justice."

FATAL TO HIM.—Ben. Hayden, up to the second day of the Democratic State Convention, was a candidate for Congress. On the second day, Mr. Butler withdrew his name, saying, that he thanked the friends of Mr. Hayden, and assured the Convention that both he and Hayden knew their friends from their pretended friends. This was a cut at the Marion Democracy who, after "dragging" Hayden out, had picked up Smith Butler, who is an innocent sort of man, can't understand till this day why Hayden's claims were treated so cavalierly. The key to Hayden's slaughter was furnished by Mr. Page when he remarked as an electioneering argument for Smith, that, "If Mr. Smith were elected to the Legislature of Oregon, he would never vote for any man for United States Senator who had ever affiliated with Black Republicans," meaning thereby the Union party. It will be recollected that Hayden had acted with the Union party up to the time of the Union Convention of 1862, when he was, very fortunately for that party, defeated, by the nomination of Gov. Gibbs over him, for Governor. His acting with the Union party, in support of the Union, even in the character of a Judas, was sufficient to destroy his claims before the late Democratic Convention. It was out and out secession and rebel, and nobody but a consistent opponent of the Union Government had the ghost of a chance to receive a nomination. Hayden had not helped the rebels all the time. That's what's the matter.

> From friends who have lately visited Harney county during the past week, we ascertain that the [Democratic] ticket and platform give entire satisfaction there. —Herald.

In the Long-Tom and Soap Creek Secession cies, where, all through the war, drunken hurrahs for Jeff Davis might have been heard almost any day or night, the ticket may be said to be eminently satisfactory.

No Such Thing as Treason

The dispatches this morning bring us intelligence of the release of C C Clay from Fortress Monroe by order of the President This latest effort of Andrew Johnson "to make treason odious" was not unlooked for, and will therefore occasion no surprise Were it not for his many inconsistencies we might reasonably expect him now for consistency's sake to release Jeff Davis also That he will finally release him there can be no shadow of doubt And why should he not set Jeff Davis at liberty since all others have been permitted to go free, and since many of his associates in the rebellion equally as guilty as he have been honored by and received into the confidence of Andrew Johnson? Johnson once offered a reward for Clay, asserting that he was implicated in the assassination of President Lincoln, why has not this charge been investigated? Clay has been confined a year at Fortress Monroe, and after this long imprisonment the autocrat of America sets him at liberty without vouchsafing a word in explanation of the reason which has induced this extraordinary action If Clay is an innocent man he has been deeply injured if he is guilty why should he go unpunished? But stop! Under the President's "policy"—a "policy" which has supplanted that obsolete instrument the Constitution of the United States—there is no treason except that which is found among men who want no fellowship with those whom Andrew Johnson a year ago called traitors, but whom he has lately taken for his nearest friends

The Mountaineer of yesterday contains a letter from Capt John Smith agent at the Warm Springs Reservation, in which is recited something of the history of the Snake Indian depredations since 1859 and in which he urges the necessity of military posts for the protection of the Canyon City road and mines, as well as of the reservation He says The troops at Camps Polk Wright Curry Logan and Watson are all ordered in and the posts are to be abandoned When this order is carried into effect (as it will be in a few days) there will be absolutely no barrier between the Warm Springs Reservation and the Snake country of the south and south eastern portion of the State * * * * * * * * Twenty resolute Snake Indians can at any time take possession of this Agency and they are fully aware of its exposed condition" The Mountaineer in speaking of this matter and the order sending all the troops to the Boise District intimates that Gen Halleck the Division Commander is more interested in opening the Chico route than in the matter of protecting the lives of American citizens

O KAY VS HIS PLATFORM —The Joneses in convention the other day resolved that the assumption that they the Joneses were in favor of secession was false and slanderous The Sentinel quotes from O Kay Jones as follows

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice

315 Montgomery St., San Francisco.

THE ABOVE PREPARATION WHICH HAS BEEN recently discovered and patented, is purely a Vegetable Extract

The undersigned are fully aware of the many useless factory and useless preparations for restoring hair that have been introduced to the public and how little confidence is to be placed in any pretension as to restoring the hair to bald heads but having tried MR HOWARD'S PREPARATION we are able to state that it not only prevents the hair from falling out but absolutely reproduces it and that we now have good suits of hair growing where we were entirely bald Therefore as a matter of justice to Mr Howard and of consolation to bald heads we tender him this testimonial Mr H keeps the article for sale in bottles with directions for its use or applies it himself as may be desired

NEW BUILDINGS.—The increased business of this city naturally calls for improvement, of all kinds. Hitherto the principal portion of the buildings annually constructed in the city have been for residences. Last year the average number of dwellings, from the small cottage worth from $600 to $1,000 to the fine residence valued at $5,000, $7,000 or $10,000 each, was nearly one new building for every day in the year. The present season there is not so large a number in this class of improvements, but the erection of brick stores generally with iron fronts, is very considerable. Below will be found [illegible] a list of new buildings to be commenced within a short time:

The first we would mention is that of the proposed new brick church for the Methodist denomination. This new building will front upon Third street, and Taylor street, to be of English gothic with three entrances, 56 feet wide by 82 feet in length exclusive of a tower 17 feet square at the base, 160 feet high. The plan of the building has been submitted and approved by the Trustees and Rev. E. C. Lippincott has been appointed to the [illegible] of the funds for its erection. As soon as two thirds of the cost is obtained the work will be commenced, and there is every assurance that the walls will be up and the building enclosed the present season with [illegible] finished off for use. We would parenthetically state that the present building is too small for the congregation and having been thrown open to the public on all occasions not calculated to detract from the sacred uses with which it was dedicated, the church have claims upon this community which are being properly appreciated, as is evidenced by the list of contributions to the new project. The new edifice will cost $30,000.

The next improvement in point of importance which we shall notice at this time, is the erection of six brick stores by Messrs. Ainsworth, Thompson, Kamm and Reed, on the property adjoining the new wharf of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company. The buildings will be of uniform appearance, iron front making a block 200 by 100 feet, two stories above the street, with stone basement. Cost of buildings $70,000.

On Alder street, fronting on First and Front streets, Messrs. C. H. and T. J. Carter propose erecting a brick block, 200 by 50 feet, three stories high with basement. One half of the building 50 by 100 on the corner of Front and Alder streets is already under contract, and that portion on the corner of First and Alder, of uniform size and appearance, will be erected the present season, if the [illegible] opposes no objection. This improvement, estimated at a low estimate, will be at an expense of $80,000.

[illegible] of six other buildings of brick, these make that will cost $100,000 in the aggregate, which [illegible] have not yet completed their arrangements, but which it is very probable will be erected [before the] close of the summer. The following are nearly [illegible] for at this time:

Two brick stores, 25 by 90 feet each, two stories high, iron fronts, on the site of the Tremont and Franklin [illegible], at a cost of $40,000, for Capt. A. P. Ankeny.

Three brick stores, 25 by 100 feet each, two stories high, corner of Morrison and Front streets for Richard White; estimated cost $30,000.

[illegible] stores on Front street, between Oak and Pine, 25 by 80 feet each, two stories high, for Savier & Co., cost $20,000.

One brick store, 25 by 80 feet, two stories high, on Front street, between Stark and Oak, for Baum Brothers, [illegible].

Two brick stores 25 by 80 feet each, two stories high, extending from Front to First street, between Stark and [illegible], for J. H. Seller, cost $20,000.

[illegible] store, 25 by 100 feet, two stories high, on First street, [illegible] with the present place of business, by [illegible] Milwain & Joynt. Cost $10,000.

One store 25 by 80 feet, two stories high, corner of Alder and Front streets, for Walter Moffitt; cost [illegible].

Several other buildings of this class are in contemplation, but the fears of a lack of material to supply the demand, and a consequent advance in price, retards the [illegible] of them by the owners.

There are some few frame buildings in process of erection that are worthy of note, but the time has arrived in the [illegible] of this city when people should not encourage that class of buildings in the thick portions of the city. Taking the cost to the tenant, and adding insurance, it will be found that the person who occupies a fire proof building has the best end of a bargain, at any rate, and this being the case it would be well if fire limits were [illegible] to prevent the erection of frame structures [illegible] prescribed bounds.

A very desirable wharf improvement has just been [illegible] contract by Messrs. Couch & Flanders, who have [illegible] the interests of Messrs. Johnson [illegible] to the property adjoining the present steamship landing on the south. Extensive double docks, stretching 500 feet in length along the river, from A street to [illegible] street, will be completed at a cost of $25,000. [illegible]. This, taken in connection with the wharf [illegible] of the O. S. N. Company, will give [illegible] lineal wharfage nearly 1,200 feet, equivalent to six entire blocks; and which will be really superior to any like convenience on the Pacific coast.

In [illegible] the above improvements we have [illegible], [illegible] will be begun within a few days or [illegible] in process of erection, and now nearly [illegible] been taken into account, but shall [illegible] as opportunity affords, [illegible] to the new steam saw mill of [illegible], on the site of the old Abrams [illegible] foot of Clay street. The foundation for this enterprise has been laid, and it is expected the mill will be in [illegible] by the middle of the Summer. The main [illegible] will be 62 by 90 feet in size, three stories high, [illegible] house will be 25 by 57 feet in size, and [illegible] to an estimate, will not vary far [illegible].

BRUTAL AND COWARDLY ASSAULT.—Yesterday afternoon our local reporter, Mr. D. C. Ireland, was brutally and [illegible] assaulted by A. M. Burns, late Commander of the [illegible] Steam Navigation Company's steamer Pacific. The [assa]ult was made by the first, striking Mr. I. in the face while he was yet unaware of the intentions of Burns, the blow felling him completely to the ground, where they were standing. Mr. I. attempted to recover [illegible], but being considerably stunned by the first blow, before he could help himself, received another about the head, and was then kicked in the side. Burns then [illegible] him to get up, and, bleeding profusely, he sought a place near by where he washed the clotted blood from his face, and administered a preparation to prevent the swelling of the parts upon which injuries were [illegible]. The cause of the assault is unknown to Mr. [illegible], unless it is based upon the fact that he has been [illegible] advocate of the [illegible] line of steamships now plying to Oregon from San Francisco. On the last trip [illegible] of the Pacific to this port, [illegible], March 18th, Burns attempted to place the list of passengers beyond the reach of Mr. Ireland, and some words between them followed an expose of the plan, at Arrigoni's that night. Mr. Ireland has had no [illegible] to make the matter personal, but subsequent to the events of March 18th, he has [illegible] his private opinion of Mr. Burns as freely as [illegible] of all men of this ilk. That Burns is a threatening bully, void of the spirit of accommodation, and lacking all the qualities of a gentleman, is a very general [illegible] in this community, and these opinions were [illegible] by his cowardly assault on Mr. Ireland yesterday. Mr. Ireland has no personal difficulties, he is not [illegible] style of finishing an opponent, [illegible] the oath-bound, and bloody [illegible] shoulder-hitters like Burns who [illegible] on those who are not expecting [illegible] the brutality of such ruffians as he. The spirit which Burns exhibited is precisely that which would stab behind an opponent and "chivalrously" plunge [illegible] in his back. Why did Burns single Mr. Ireland [illegible] the hundreds in this city, who, he says [illegible] about him!" Burns is a man of superior [illegible], and an adept at the art, but he can find his [illegible] in point of muscle in Portland, who have expressed [illegible] regard for him quite as emphatically, if not more so, than ever Mr. Ireland did. Why not try these? He will be required to appear before Justice Hoffman this [illegible] to answer for his conduct.

[illegible]ANCE.—The Courts of San Francisco are very [illegible] of late shipping their thieves and rough gamblers on board men-of-war, or to Portland. We have been at a loss to account for the fearful increase of villains in this [illegible], but it is now a patent fact that the [illegible] is attributed to the "friendly" action of the [illegible] city Courts. One [illegible] is afforded us in this [illegible], however. It is an easy matter for such fellows to get through to Montana where they find hospitable graves at an early day, notwithstanding the trouble they put stage drivers, travelers, and others, while en route. The [illegible] of the Vigilance Committee are not yet closed; [illegible] is busily with them, and it [illegible] must be attended to," whenever occasion requires. No honest man was ever interfered with by the Vigilance Committee, but as long as officials, Judges on the bench in civil and cities like San Francisco, neglect to deal righteously with thieves and rough gamblers, there will exist in the [illegible] a necessity for orthodox laws of the old [illegible] school.

[illegible] McDERMOTT.—This gentleman, who, it will be [illegible], was taken from Idaho to Sacramento recently, as the [illegible] Wells, called upon us last evening. Having passed through the most torturing turn of a life time safely, and established his identity, he is now en route for Idaho again to resume his occupation as a miner. He has a [illegible] of this painful page in his history, in the shape of a photograph of Wells, and one of himself, on a card. At first sight one would be inclined to say there was a great similarity in the two pictures, but upon closer inspection considerable difference is observed. Mr. [illegible] appears to be a very honest and intelligent man, and about the last person to be mistaken for a murderer.

[illegible] APPLES.—The S. F. Call of April 14th says that, "during the past week 3,800 boxes of apples have been received in this market from Oregon, and sold on the wharf at $2.00 to $2.75 per box." We notice that the [illegible] of the P. T. Company are now bringing, much fruit of a good quality from the valley for shipment. The [illegible] rates of freight afford some profit to the shipper at present prices. Buyers in this market offer from 75 cents to $1.25 per box, according to quality.

GLAD TO HEAR IT.—Collector Adams, who has perhaps [illegible] more personal indignity for his promptness in [illegible] A. M. Burns and others, for infringement of the laws of Congress relative to smugglers, we are glad to learn has received authentic intelligence from San Francisco, informing him that the thieves who robbed him during a recent trip to San Francisco, have been captured by the detectives set on their track and that a [illegible] of the money has been recovered.

[illegible] COURT.—J. J. HOFFMAN, J. April 19 1866.—The business of the court was principally the disposal of cases growing out of the carelessness of people in not taking out city licenses as required by law. Nominal fines were [illegible] upon some of the parties, and others were [illegible] in accordance with the nature of the case. [illegible] and Nicolls, pugilists, paid a fine of $5 and costs.

[illegible].—The correspondence on our first page was [illegible] to have the title of "Letter from the Harney Lake Country." By mistake the word "county" was put for [illegible]try.

A RETIRING SIGN.—Barman Bros know how to advertise their place of business, that's certain. Last evening they had the front part of their sales room brilliantly lighted by a novel arrangement of gas burners. There are about [illegible] hundred and ninety jets so arranged on a framework of pipe about five feet in length as to make the words BARMAN BROS. Each letter contains about the same number of gas-burners as ordinary burner and the effect is decidedly brilliant. Very few people passed during the evening without stopping to take a second look at this novel and attractive sign.

PHILHARMONIC.—The books for the Philharmonic Society arrived by the steamer [illegible]. The regular weekly meeting of the Society will be held this evening at Prof. Grob's music room, over Randall's music store.

THANKS.—We are under obligations to Mr. McCormick, of the Franklin Book Store, for an abundant supply of late Eastern papers, periodicals, ladies magazines, etc., received by steamer yesterday.

SLIGHT DIFFERENCE.—The papers of San Francisco are advertising a grand rush of sales of real estate. Real estate transactions in Portland are generally based upon the grand cash system.

STOCK SALES.—The auction sales of mining shares by Kilbourn should be well attended this morning. See advertisement.

INVALUABLE.—We believe that the genuine Hall's Pulmonary Balsam prevents more disease than all other medicines are capable of curing by its wonderful effects, in immediately breaking up common colds.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants. Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in Bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

MY NAME WAS PUT IN NOMINATION FOR THE office of Justice of the Peace for the South Portland Precinct by the so-called Union Convention of Multnomah county. HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of HEALTH. "But how?" you ask;
We answer, 'tis an easy task.
Strengthen the STOMACH and sustain
The NERVES, the servants of the brain.
The LIVER keep in active play
And regulate from day to day
Each organ aid, on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the INNER MAN,
And like a watch that's kept in chime
By constant care, with railroad time,
The system's tone and strength renew,
And thereby cheer the spirits, too.
"How," you inquire, "can this be done?
This Victory over Disease be won?"
"HOSTETTER'S BITTERS," we reply,
Is HEALTH'S SUPREME PROTECTION—TRY!

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life no medicinal preparation, either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Against the vapors foul prepare,
That fever taint the heavy air,
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, woods or marshy ground.
If sedentary toil you ply,
Nature you must assist—or die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries.
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent,
And if you'd be relieved or spared
From ills that crush the unprepared,
Hostetter's Bitters use—for note
They are the SUREST ANTIDOTE.

To set at defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded work rooms and factories, and the baneful influence of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be forearmed with

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Dyspepsia's pangs, that rack and grind
The body, and depress the mind;
Agues, that as they go and come,
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dysenteric pains,
'Neath which the strong man's vigor wanes;
Bilious complaints, those tedious ills,
Ne'er conquered yet by drastic pills;
Dread diarrhoea that cannot be
Cured by destructive mercury;
Slow constitutional decay,
That brings Death nearer, day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom—
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these—though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail,
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS—medicine sure,
Not to prevent, alone, but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constitutional and nervous debility, constipation, sea-sickness, spasms, and in all complaints of Men or Women, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

To wanderers on sea or land,
From Polar shore to Tropic strand;
To households lone, in regions new,
And dwellers in great cities, too;
To soldiers in camp, fort and field,
Who need against disease a shield;
To miners, California bound,
And tillers of wet, marshy ground,
To feeble wives of fragile mould,
To young and middle aged, and old;
To those in health, who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy;
To all the strengthless, weak and pale,
Who droop, yet know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present
As Health's most potent element.

If there is any value in public opinion, or any weight in medical testimony, the very best and safest Tonic, Corrective and Alterative now before the world is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Montana News.

The Montana Post of the 21th ult has the following

EXCITEMENT AT BEAR GULCH

The subjoined short but pithy dispatch was received by us on Thursday evening

"Friend Hon You may 'toot the old horn, and blow the bazoo' as much as you please over Bear Gulch. It is enormously rich—claims are selling at $2 000! and scarce at that! Pete Hall, Dave Thompson, L C May and other Virginia boys are here The stampede is greater than ever known to any mines before"

ELK CREEK AND RATTLESNAKE MINES

The Elk Creek mines are also thought to be big, though they are not so well developed as yet This is reliable

Washburn Stapleton called at our office yesterday He is from Rattlesnake, and showed us some fine specimens of ore From a sample of the quartz of one lode he extracted a button of silver, by melting, with the aid of a common bellows, a piece of ore lying on a bit of wood On weighing it accurately it turned out at the rate of over $1,700 of silver to the ton and about $4 to the ounce of bullion, extracted, according to Gillett's estimate, on trial of the contents of the button

INFORMATION ABOUT MONTANA

The following extracts are from a letter dated March 10th

From Salt Lake to Virginia, Montana, it is about five hundred miles, fare, $125 greenbacks, or $100 in coin or dust.

From Virginia to Helena it is 125 miles, in a northwesterly direction, fare, $25 in dust There we find quite a large city, a few substantial buildings (the buildings generally being roughly put up, built of logs), and contains probably 4,000 inhabitants, and is the headquarters from which from 2,000 to 3,000 others draw their supplies Confederate Gulch, 40 miles to the east and beyond the Missouri river, also a number of other gulches in which paying placers have been found, all draw their supplies from Helena, making it one of the liveliest places in the Territory It is situated on the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains that divide the waters of the Missouri from the Columbia.

Thirty miles from Helena, on Ophir Gulch, is the famous Blackfoot City, which last year contained from two to three thousand inhabitants, and within the circumference of five miles are Carpenter's, Dry, Prairie, Deadwood and several other gulches whose names I do not remember, in all of which gold in paying quantities has been taken out; while to the north from fourteen to eighteen miles are Washington, Jefferson, McClellan, California and Nevada gulches, the last being the main gulch and the five former putting into it—all lying on the western slope of the Rocky Mountains. From Blackfoot to Cottonwood, the county seat of Deer Lodge county, is thirty miles. Here a great many wintered, there being less snow than in the neighboring camps.

From Cottonwood to Elk creek is fifty-five miles, a great portion of the way over the "Mullan road" that extends from Fort Benton to Wallula, in Oregon. Leaving the road we travel in an easterly direction for ten miles up a gulch so densely timbered it is difficult to get an animal through without danger of removing his load. But we arrive all safe and sound, and find Elk creek to be about eighteen miles in length and thickly timbered. It was discovered late last fall, and of course is now claimed and staked off its whole length. Claims are 200 feet each. The laws are such that no person could locate a claim for persons who had not been in to the creek. Still some were located for outside parties, and are being relocated as fast as found out. When I arrived at Helena the excitement about this place was great. Rumors of an immense streak of gravel paying forty to fifty cents per pan were rife, but I have not seen it yet. There is no work going on in the way of taking out dust, with the exception of one claim—No. 22, above the discovery—although their claim is not properly opened, having but four sluice-boxes set and only able to work with but two men for a small portion of the day, on account of everything being frozen. Still they are taking from $60 to $100 per day. I have no doubt when that piece of ground is properly open it will pay from $40 to $50 per day to the hand. Of the other claims I cannot say much; no work having been done, with the exception of here and there a prospect hole. You will hear all kinds of rumors about what so and so got, but I have heard so many contradictory reports that I believe only what I see. However, every one seems in good spirits, and believe they have their pile. There have not been any sales of claims yet, for the reason that most of the men who are here have, like your correspondent—spent what they had in getting here. But a person here now would find no trouble in purchasing a claim of unprospected ground for $200. Many would be glad to take a partner if he could furnish provisions for the next six weeks, or until the snow melted so as to allow them to work, digging tail-races, and otherwise opening their claims. Last fall the men who owned the claim above took out with a rocker $400 in two weeks. They think it will pay when they get it in washing order from $30 to $50 per day to the hand. The width of the pay streak no one knows, but in depth it is from four to six feet. There are a number of gulches putting into Elk creek, and there is considerable excitement about them—Moore's, Day's, McManus', Shanghai, Granite and Maginnis'; extraordinary reports come to us of the richness of the last named, as well as of its tributaries—Nelborn and Bellows. We were lucky in securing a claim just below the mouth of the Maginnis, of Elk creek, and if there is much ore in either of those gulches, some of it must have washed down to ours. In a few days we will know more of it. Snow is now on an average two and a half feet deep, and will hardly be off before the middle of May. Parties who venture out prospecting wear web snow-shoes. Without them, stepping off the traveled trail, down you go two feet in snow.

California News Items.

We obtain the following news items from our files of California papers, by the Orizaba:

The amount of bullion shipped from the Gold Hill Express office, for the month of March last, sums up $490,123 70.

The Marysville Express says the warm weather following the water has caused grass, grain and vegetation in general, to fairly jump upward, and the prospect is not only for early but large crops.

The San Jose charter election on Monday, resulted in a Union triumph, the majorities ranging from 100 to 150.

Company A, of the Ninth Regiment U. S. Infantry, Captain Jordan, which has been stationed at the Presidio for a long time, took up the line of march for Fort Crook, yesterday. They mustered some eighty men and were as fine looking a body of soldiers as can be brought "to attention" anywhere. Success to the officers and men to their destination

The various Lodges of Odd Fellows of the city will have a grand celebration of their anniversary, on Thursday, the 26th instant, at Redwoods.

The sons of the Green Isle during the week have held sundry meetings, at all of which no little enthusiasm and sympathy for down-trodden Erin, have been exhibited. The following is a list of officers chosen to serve for the ensuing six months: President, R. Crowley, Vice President, James Burke; Treasurer, James O'Connell, (reelected); Recording Secretary, J. D. Farrell, (re-elected); Corresponding Secretary, Joseph Colby, Trustees, Messrs. M. Doyle, P. O'Hanlon, D O'Day, and W McDonald.

A Santa Clara dispatch dated April 12th, has the following: The Fenians are here in full force to-night. Wagon loads of them from the country have been coming in all the evening, and several omnibus loads came from San Jose. The Fenian military company from San Jose, headed by a band, also came over. The town is full of Fenians. Two boxes of arms were received here today, and a company is to use them in drilling. Bonfires illuminate the streets, and the Fenians are to be addressed by Colonel Welsh, formerly of Sherman's staff. He is a good speaker, and great enthusiasm prevails It is understood that more arms are expected in a few days for other companies.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF ANDERSONVILLE.—James T Davis, an old and well known resident of Sayville, L I died on Saturday, March 3d, under the following melancholy circumstances: Henry T Davis, his son, a young man of great promise, enlisted early in the war in the Ira Harris cavalry He was taken prisoner at the battle of Hagerstown, in July, 1863, and was kept for seven months at Belle Isle prison, when he was removed, and his friends lost all trace of him Two days previous to the death of the father he and his daughter were returning home from Brooklyn in the Long Island cars, when a stranger handed Mr Davis a copy of the "Andersonville Record," and on looking over the names of the dead almost the first one that caught his eye was that of his son He dropped the book, and became suddenly paralyzed He was conveyed in that condition to his residence, and remained so for two days, when death ended his sufferings.—N Y Evening Post.

THE MINING EMIGRATION.—Our Eastern exchanges are filled with items regarding the departure of boats and trains for the mining regions, and all concur in the opinion that the emigration across the plains this season will be larger than any year since '59 The Nevada papers chronicle the departure of a large number of miners for the mining regions of Owyhee and Montana.—Flag.

The Bill of Civil Rights

The following is a copy of the Civil Rights Bill as it passed both Houses of Congress

SEC. 2 And that any person who, under color of any law, statute, ordinance, regulation or custom, shall subject or cause to be subjected, any inhabitant of any State or Territory to the deprivation of any right secured or protected by this act, or to different punishment, pains and penalties on account of such person having at any time been held in a condition of slavery or involuntary servitude, except for the punishment of crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, or by reason of his color or race, than is prescribed for the punishment of white persons, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the Court

SEC. 3 That the District Courts of the United States within their respective districts, shall have exclusively of the Courts of the several States, cognizance of all crimes and offences committed against the provisions of this act, and also concurrently with the Circuit Courts of the United States of all causes, civil and criminal, affecting persons who are denied, or cannot enforce in the Courts of judicial tribunal of the State or locality where they may be any of the rights secured to them by the first section of this act, and if any suit or prosecution, civil or criminal, has been or shall be commenced in any State Court against any such person for any cause whatsoever, civil or military, or any other person, for any arrest or imprisonment, trespasses or wrongs done or committed by virtue or under color of authority derived from this act or the act establishing a bureau for the relief of freedmen and refugees, and all acts amendatory thereof, or for refusing to do any act upon the ground that it would be inconsistent with this act, such defendant shall have the right to remove such cause for trial to the proper District or Circuit Court in the manner prescribed by the act relating to habeas corpus and regulating judicial proceedings in certain cases, approved March 3, 1863, and all acts amendatory thereto. The jurisdiction in civil and criminal matters hereby conferred on the District and Circuit Courts of the United States shall be exercised and enforced in conformity with the laws of the United States, so far as such laws are suitable to carry the same into effect, but in all cases where such laws are not adapted to the object, or are deficient in the provisions necessary to furnish suitable remedies and punish offences against the law, the common law as modified and changed by the Constitution and statutes of the State wherein the Court having jurisdiction of the cause, civil or criminal, is held, so far as the same is not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States, shall be extended and govern the said Courts in the trial and disposition of such cause, and if of a criminal nature, in the infliction of punishment on the party found guilty.

SEC. 4. That District Attorneys, Marshals, and Deputy Marshals of the United States, the Commissioners appointed by the Circuit and Territorial Courts of the United States, with powers of arresting, imprisoning, or bailing offenders against the laws of the United States, the officers and agents of the Freedmen's Bureau, and every other officer who may be especially empowered by the President of the United States, shall be and they are hereby specially authorized and required, at the expense of the United States, to institute proceedings against all and every person who shall violate the provisions of this act, and cause him or them to be arrested and imprisoned, or bailed, as the case may be, for trial before such of the United States or Territorial Courts, as by this act have cognizance of the offence; and with a view to affording reasonable protection to all persons in their constitutional rights of equality before the law, without distinction of race or color, or previous condition of slavery or involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, and the prompt discharge of the duties of this act, it shall be the duty of the Circuit Courts of the United States and the Superior Courts of the Territories of the United States from time to time to increase the number of Commissioners, so as to afford a speedy and convenient means for the arrest and examination of persons charged with a violation of this act.

SEC. 5. That said Commissioners shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the Judges of the Circuit and District Courts of the United States, and the Judges of the Superior Courts of the Territories, severally and collectively, in term, time and vacation, upon satisfactory proof being made, to issue warrants and precepts for arresting and bringing before them all offenders against the provisions of this act, and on examination to discharge, admit to bail, or commit them for trial, as the facts may warrant.

SEC. 6 And such Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to exercise and discharge all the powers and duties conferred on them by this act, and the same duties with regard to offences created by this act, as they are authorized by law to exercise with regard to other offences against the laws of the United States. SECRETARY SEWARD —A special dispatch to the Chicago Republican, from Washington, under date of March 4th, says Secretary Seward in an interview with a Pennsylvania member, grew very much excited over political matters, and denounced Congress in the most violent manner He said there was not a rebel in this country to day, that that which is termed Johnson's policy is his; that he laid it out for Lincoln, who adopted it, and was carrying it out when he died and that Johnson is merely continuing it He declared himself in favor of the immediate admission of the Southern delegations, and the repeal of the test oath

President Johnson's Pledge,

WHAT HE SAID WHEN HE ACCEPTED THE NOMINATION FOR THE VICE PRESIDENCY.

[From the Washington Chronicle]

We give the following extracts from his speech of acceptance of the Republican nomination for Vice President under which he was elected, and by which he is bound as President of the United States. In this full, formal, hearty and noble language we read the death warrant of his whole present plan of retrogression. His denunciation of Southern traitors, his open consultation with disloyal [illegible], his plea for the admission of doubtful men into Congress, and above all his demand that the rebel States shall be instantly rehabilitated, are here so overwhelmingly put to shame that we stand amazed at the spirit which has forgotten or disregarded pledges so distinct and principles so sacred Here is

"The question is, whether man is capable of self-government. I hold with Jefferson that government was made for the convenience of man and not man for government The laws and constitutions were designed as instruments to promote his welfare. And hence, from this principle, I conclude that Government can and ought to be changed and amended to conform to the wants, to the requirements and progress of the people, and the enlightened spirit of the age [Loud applause] Now if any of you secessionists have lost faith in man's capability for self-government and feel unfit for the exercise of this great right, go straight to rebeldom, take Jeff Davis, Beauregard, and Bragg for your masters, and put their collars on your necks

"And let me say that now is the time to secure these fundamental principles, while the land is rent with anarchy and upheaves with the throes of a mighty revolution. While society is in this disordered state, and we are seeking security, let us fix the foundation of the Government on principles of eternal justice which will endure for all time There is an element in our midst who are for perpetuating the institution of slavery Let me say to you, Tennesseans and men from the Northern States that slavery is dead It was not murdered by me I told you long ago what the result would be if you endeavored to go out of the Union to save slavery, and that the result would be bloodshed, rapine, devastated fields, plundered villages and cities, and therefore, I urged you to remain in the Union In trying to save slavery you killed it, and lost your own freedom. Your slavery is dead, but I did not murder it As Macbeth said to Banquo's bloody ghost

'Never shake thy gory locks at me,
Thou canst not say I did it.'

"Slavery is dead, and you must pardon me if I do not mourn over its dead body; you can bury it out of sight In restoring the State, leave out that disturbing and dangerous element, and use only those parts of the machinery which will move in harmony

"But in calling a Convention to restore the State who shall restore and re-establish it? Shall the man who gave his influence and his means to destroy the Government? Is he to participate in the great work of Reorganization? Shall he who brought this misery upon the State be permitted to control its destinies? If this be so, then all this precious blood of our brave soldiers and officers so freely poured out will have been wantonly spilled All the glorious victories won by our noble armies will go for naught, and all the battle fields which have been sown with dead heroes during the rebellion will have been made memorable in vain

"Why all this carnage and devastation? It was that treason might be put down and traitors punished Therefore I say that traitors should take a back seat in the work of restoration If there be but five thousand men in Tennessee loyal to the Constitution, loyal to freedom, loyal to justice, these true and faithful men should control the work of reorganization and reformation absolutely. [Loud and prolonged applause.] I say that the traitor has ceased to be a citizen, and in joining the rebellion has become a public enemy He forfeited his right to vote with loyal men when he renounced his citizenship and sought to destroy our Government We say to the most honest and industrious foreigner who comes from England or Germany to dwell among us, and to add to the wealth of the country, 'Before you can be a citizen, you must stay here for five years.' If we are so cautious about foreigners, who voluntarily renounce their homes to live with us, what should we say to the traitor who, although born and reared among us, has raised a parricidal hand against the Government which has always protected him? My judgment is that he should be subjected to a severe ordeal before he is restored to citizenship A fellow who takes the oath merely to save his property, and denies the validity of the oath, is a perjured man, and not to be trusted. Before these repentant rebels can be trusted, let them bring forth the fruits of repentance. He who helped to make all these widows and orphans, who draped the streets of Nashville in mourning, should suffer for his great crime. The work is in our hands We can destroy this rebellion. With Grant thundering on the Potomac before Richmond, and Sherman and Thomas on their march toward Atlanta, the day will ere long be ours. Will any madly persist in rebellion? Suppose that an equal number be slain in every battle, it is plain that the result must be the utter extermination of the rebels. Ah! these rebel leaders have a strong personal reason for holding out to save their necks from the halter; and these leaders must feel the power of the Government!

"TREASON MUST BE MADE ODIOUS, AND TRAITORS MUST BE PUNISHED AND IMPOVERISHED. THEIR GREAT PLANTATIONS MUST BE SEIZED, AND DIVIDED INTO SMALL FARMS, AND SOLD TO HONEST, INDUSTRIOUS MEN. THE DAY FOR PROTECTING THE LANDS AND NEGROES OF THESE AUTHORS OF REBELLION IS PAST. IT IS HIGH TIME IT WAS. I HAVE BEEN MOST DEEPLY PAINED AT SOME THINGS WHICH HAVE COME UNDER MY OBSERVATION. WE GET MEN IN COMMAND WHO, UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF FLATTERY, FAWNING AND CARESSING, GRANT PROTECTION TO THE RICH TRAITOR, WHILE THE POOR UNION MAN STANDS OUT IN THE COLD, OFTEN UNABLE TO GET A RECEIPT OR VOUCHER FOR HIS LOSSES. [Cries of 'That's so' from all parts of the crowd] THE TRAITOR CAN GET LUCRATIVE CONTRACTS, WHILE THE LOYAL MAN IS PUSHED ASIDE, unable to obtain a recognition of his just stripes and shoulder-straps I want them all to hear what I say I have been on a gridiron for two years at the sight of these abuses I blame not the Government for these things which are the work of weak or faithless subordinates. Wrongs will be committed under every form of government and under every administration For myself, I mean to stand by the Government till the flag of the Union shall wave over every city, town, hill-top, and cross-roads, in its full power and majesty.

SOMETHING NEW AND NOVEL.—A PATENT APPLIED FOR —Mr HENDEE has invented an article by which he can take any number of Head Pictures on the same plate without the subject getting up from the chair; can get different positions of the face and all sizes of heads, can put a half dozen heads on the space of a half dollar; can put a whole family of heads on a common sized card, and will sell pictures cheaper than any other Gallery on this coast. Has the process for taking the new and beautiful style picture called the Porcelain or Sun Pearl, as much talked of in San Francisco, also has engaged a man from that place who has been making those pictures in San Francisco.

Mr H. is now prepared to do as good work and in as great variety of style as any Gallery in Portland Orders for full portrait size of photograph will be promptly attended to. ap18dtf

WATER WHEELS.
POWER PLEDGED EQUAL
TO THE
Best Overshot Wheel in Existence.
Prices Greatly Reduced!
Prices Greatly Reduced!
American Double Turbine Water Wheel
IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works, in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 46 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.
All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance, commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.
This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.
The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to LEFFEL & MYERS,
Oregon Iron Works,

making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in Coin, would be getting the best bargain in the city I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see how much it costs to have such tenants in such costly buildings as the one referred to above
